

Stuart Crainer

co-founder, Thinkers50

ABOUT

Stuart has over 30 years of experience as an editor, speaker, writer and columnist. He has written for magazines and publications worldwide and is the former editor of London Business School's award-winning magazine Business Strategy Review. Stuart's book credits include Key Management Ideas, The Ultimate Business Library, The Management Century and a biography of management icon, Tom Peters. He is co-author of The Future of Leadership and Makers of Management as well as a series of books with Des Dearlove including Gravy Training and Generation Entrepreneur. He is also the author of Atlantic Crossing, a collection of poems based on his experiences sailing the Atlantic, and a forthcoming book on the American poet Ezra Pound.